

Kentucky Commission on Human Rights 2010 Civil Rights Poster Contest

Awards

- ❖ Winners will be honored at the Kentucky Civil Rights Conference, October 13 - 16, 2010
- ❖ Winning posters will be displayed in program publications and on the agency website
- ❖ All posters will be displayed at the conference

Deadline:

May 15, 2010

All contestants are asked to depict in art form what they think it means to be a Protector of Civil and Human Rights, a Voice for Equality and a Catalyst for Positive Change in Kentucky

In 1960, Kentucky became the first state south of the Mason-Dixon Line to open its own human rights commission. In 1966, Kentucky became the first southern state to pass its own civil rights act.

Moving people forward so that discrimination becomes an outdated concept, and equal opportunity and diversity are a way of life enjoyed by all!!